

HUDSON RIVER HERITAGE ANNUAL PRESERVATION FORUM

Historic Preservation and Adaptive Reuse at Bard College

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 2016
ANNANDALE-ON-HUDSON, NY

BLITHEWOOD GATE HOUSE

Join Hudson River Heritage as we delve into the historic architecture of the Bard College campus.

Known as one of the most beautiful college campuses in the country, Bard's location in Annandale-on-Hudson, bordering the river and featuring sweeping views of the Catskills, give it a tremendous advantage. Add to that generations of distinguished architecture and beautiful landscape, and it's easy to appreciate the seductive appeal.

WARD MANOR

With its recent acquisition of neighboring Montgomery Place, the Bard campus now totals over 1000 acres. In addition to the former estate mansions that survive—Ward Manor, Blithewood, and Montgomery Place, a Gothic Revival gate house, chapel, dormitories, and academic buildings keep company with a Neoclassical library, faculty cottages in various styles, and more recent buildings designed by an impressive roster of prominent 20th century architects.

HOFFMAN LIBRARY

Our focus will be on the historic preservation and adaptive reuse of the 19th century buildings—the challenges and successes, as well as Bard's plans for the future, including its goals for the use of the Montgomery Place site. Our keynote speaker will be Bard President Leon Botstein, whom we will recognize with an award for Bard's leadership and vision with respect to its historic structures. We plan to offer tours of Blithewood throughout the day, and Montgomery Place in the afternoon.

Our daylong program starts with registration and coffee at 9:15 A.M. on the Bard Campus, includes a catered lunch, and will conclude by 5:00 P.M. Scheduled speakers include: Terence Dewsnap, Emily Majer, Matt Alexander, Ward Stanley, Peter A. Watson, Jr., and Jim Brudvig.

Cost for the event is $50 for Hudson River Heritage members, $60 for non-members, and $25 for Bard undergraduate students with I.D. Reserve online at www.hudsonriverheritage.org/preservationforum, via email at: office@hudsonriverheritage.org, or via mail to P.O. Box 287, Rhinebeck, NY 12572.
